

WE'RE GOING EPIC

As you know, we were the first to bring Buffalo Wings to the West Coast in 1982, and while others have tried to replicate them, none have succeeded.

More than 30 years later, others have opened "Wings-N-Things" restaurants all over the world, but the true quality fresh, never frozen chicken has always been here at our San Diego and Temecula restaurants.

As we begin to grow Wings-N-Things and move outside of the San Diego area, we will become Epic Wings, to mark the quality of our food and differentiate us from all of the other Wings-N-Things brands out there.

You will begin to see the Epic Wings transition happening throughout our restaurants this year. When you see our Epic Wings logo, you will know that this is the original Wings-N-Things. You can count on the chicken to be fresh, never frozen, with hand-rolled, made-in-house bread sticks, fresh veggies and homemade dressings.

We are working to bring you the best wings ever and stand above the rest. We thank you for taking this journey with us and are excited to introduce Epic Wings.

Yours truly,

THE SACCO FAMILY
